UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

United States of America,

No. 18-20421

Plaintiff,

Hon. George Caram Steeh

v.

D-1 Craig David Evans,

Count One: Receipt of child pornography, 18 U.S.C. § 2252A(a)(2)

Defendant.

Maximum Penalty: Not less than 5 years and up to 20 years

Maximum Fine: $250,000

Mandatory Supervised Release:
Not less than 5 years and up to life

Rule 11 Plea Agreement

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant
Craig David Evans and the government agree as follows:

1. Guilty Plea

A. Count of Conviction

Defendant will enter a plea of guilty to Count One of the Indictment, which charges him with receipt of child pornography, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2252A(a)(2). In consideration for this guilty plea and for other consideration, Defendant and the government agree: (i) Defendant will recommend and seek a sentence of 10 years (120 months); and (ii) the government will recommend and seek a sentence of 10 years (120 months); and (iii) both parties reserve the right to withdraw from this plea agreement and this agreement is null and void if the Court imposes a sentence above or below 10 years (120 months).

B. Elements of Offense(s)

The elements of Count One, receipt of child pornography, are as follows:

First, Defendant knowingly received any matter that contained an image of child pornography, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8);

Second, that such child pornography had been transported in interstate or foreign commerce by any means, including by computer, or that such child pornography had been produced using materials that had been mailed or shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce by any means, including by computer; and

Third, Defendant knew that such items constituted child pornography.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The following facts are a sufficient and accurate basis for defendant's guilty plea:

On June 11, 2018, HSI executed a search warrant at Defendant's home in Sterling Heights, Michigan. Agents seized numerous electronic devices from Defendant's home. Forensic analysis of Defendant's electronic devices recovered over 27,000 files of child pornography. Defendant knowingly downloaded these images and videos of child pornography onto his electronic devices through the internet. Defendant downloaded some of the child pornography as early as 2009. Defendant's child pornography included depictions of prepubescent minor girls engaged in sex acts with adult men, including penetration and other depictions of violence.

2. Sentencing Guidelines

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

There are no sentencing guideline disputes. Except as provided below, the defendant's guideline range is 97 to 121 months, as set forth on the attached worksheets. If the Court finds:

1. That defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or
2. that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from his probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for his offense; or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than 97 to 121 months, the higher guideline range becomes the agreed range. However, if the Court finds that defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different from any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections 1) and 2), above.

3. Sentence

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range. In addition, pursuant to this plea agreement between the government and Defendant, the parties have agreed that the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not be less than or exceed 10 years (120 months), or this agreement is null and void and the government is not bound by any promises contained herein.

A. Imprisonment

Except as provided in the next sentence, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not exceed the top of the sentencing guideline range as determined by Paragraph 2B. For Count One (receipt of child pornography), the applicable statute imposes a sentence of imprisonment of at least 5 years and not more than 20 years. Pursuant to this plea agreement, the parties have agreed that the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not be less than or exceed 10 years (120 months), or this agreement is null and void and the government is not bound by any promises contained herein. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(A), the Government agrees not to bring any other charges against Defendant based on information currently known to the Government pertaining to MV-1 (DOB in 2004).

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release follows the term of imprisonment. The Court must impose a term of supervised release, which in this case is not less than 5 years and up to life. The agreement concerning imprisonment described above in Paragraph 3A does not apply to any term of imprisonment that result from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment

Defendant will pay a special assessment of $100.00 at the time of sentencing. Pursuant to the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act of 2015, Defendant will also pay a special assessment of $5,000.00. See 18 U.S.C. § 3014.

D. Fine

There is no agreement as to fines.

E. Restitution

Restitution for victims depicted in child pornography possessed and received by a criminal defendant is mandatory under the Mandatory Restitution for Sexual Exploitation of Children Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2259.

To date, the government has received restitution requests from several of the victims depicted in Defendant's child pornography collection. Defendant agrees to pay restitution in the amount of $3,000, but not to exceed $100,000 total, to any victim associated with Counts One and Two of the Indictment (including the dismissed count), who may be identified and request restitution prior to sentencing.

4. SORNA/Adam Walsh Act

Defendant understands that by pleading guilty in this case, he will be required to register as a sex offender, under both federal and state registration requirements. As a condition of his release from prison on supervised release in this case, defendant will be obligated to promptly register under the federal sex offender registry. Defendant may also be required to register under the law of the state in which he resides, as well as any state where he has significant contacts (including any state where he resides, works, attends school or otherwise has significant contacts). Defendant further understands that he will be required to maintain and update his registration for at least twenty years, and potentially for the rest of his life.

5. Other Charges

If the Court accepts this agreement, the government will dismiss any remaining charges in this case.

6. Use of Withdrawn Guilty Plea

If the Court allows defendant to withdraw his guilty plea for a “fair and just reason” pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(d)(2)(B), defendant waives his rights under Fed. R. Evid. 410, and the government may use his guilty plea, any statement made under oath at the change-of-plea hearing, and the factual basis statement in this plea agreement, against him in any proceeding.

7. Each Party’s Right to Withdraw from This Agreement

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the Court imposes a sentence that is less than 120 months.

Defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw his guilty plea, if the Court decides to impose a sentence higher than 120 months. This is the only reason for which defendant may withdraw from this agreement. The Court shall advise defendant that if he does not withdraw his guilty plea under this circumstance, the Court may impose a sentence greater than the maximum allowed by Paragraph 3.

8. Appeal Waiver

Defendant waives any right he may have to appeal his conviction on any grounds. If defendant's sentence of imprisonment does not exceed 120 months, defendant also waives any right he may have to appeal his sentence on any grounds. If defendant's sentence of imprisonment is at least 120 months, the government waives any right it may have to appeal the defendant's sentence.

This waiver does not bar filing a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel in court.

9. Consequences of Withdrawal of Guilty Plea or Vacation of Conviction

If defendant is allowed to withdraw his guilty plea or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against defendant within six months after the date the order vacating defendant's conviction or allowing him to withdraw his guilty plea(s) becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea(s) or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, defendant waives his right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

10. Collateral Consequences of Conviction

Defendant understands that his conviction here may carry additional consequences under federal and state law, including the potential loss of the right to vote, right to carry a firearm, right to serve on a jury, and ability to hold certain licenses or to be employed in certain fields. Defendant further understands that, if he is not a native-born citizen of the United States, there may be adverse immigration consequences resulting from conviction. These include possible removal from the United States, denial of citizenship, denaturalization, denied admission to the United States in the future and other possible consequences. Defendant understands that no one, including the defendant's attorney or the Court, can predict to a certainty the effect of defendant's conviction on any of these matters. Defendant nevertheless affirms that he chooses to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences or other collateral consequences of his conviction.

11. Parties to Plea Agreement

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

12. Scope of Plea Agreement

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. This agreement supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to defendant or to the attorney for the defendant at any time before defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if defendant has entered into a proffer agreement in writing or a cooperation agreement in writing with the government, this plea agreement does not supersede or abrogate the terms of any such prior written agreement.

This agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

13. Acceptance of Agreement by Defendant

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 5:00 P.M. on September 12, 2019. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before defendant pleads guilty.
